SCHOOL BUILDING TAKES ON NEW ASPECT AS MANY IMPROVEMENTS ARE ADDED

NEW TOILET AND WATER SYSTEM—LONG NEEDED HAVE BEEN INSTALLED

Fountains Are Being Placed

WASH BASINS PLACED IN CONVENIENT PLACES; SINK IN DOMESTIC SCIENCE ROOM

Some very good and needed improvements have been added to the school building during the past summer. They include a different toilet system, a new water system and a new well.

Probably the most important of these improvements is the change in the toilet system. The new equipment has many advantages over the one used in previous years, especially in that it is so much more sanitary.

There has been a complete change made in the water system. We now have drinking fountains on the inside of the building and also wash basins in each of the toilets, and a sink in the Domestic Science room. There is one fountain near the foot of the stairs and another at the top of the stairs. There is also a fountain in each of the toilets.

This is much better than going out to the fountains at the well in all sorts of weather and washing in a wash pan. Those who attended school while the old system was in use should know how to appreciate the improvements, and all of us should show our appreciation by taking the best of care of them.

HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA IS REHEARSING WEEKLY

NEW MUSIC HAS BEEN ORDERED BY INSTRUCTOR FISHER—MEMBERS ARE GIVEN

The orchestra of Fishers High School began to hold rehearsals on the second week of school and are going to continue to hold rehearsals each Tuesday and Thursday, under the direction of Mr. Russel Fisher, who has been very successful in organizing bands and orchestras.

The Fishers School Orchestra has been a success from time of its organization. While Mr. Caylor was music teacher and director. The first year it advanced enough to play for the commencement of the school, and several other meetings, which were held at the school building.

Last year the orchestra was more of a success, because it was improved by the members who were interested enough in the organization to take lessons through the summer months. Last spring the orchestra was requested to play for several commencements of the county and different meetings held at the school building.

The playing was profitable and also enjoyed by the members.

Mr. Fisher has ordered new music for the orchestra which he thinks the members enjoy playing, and also help them for their own good.

New members have taken music instruments to learn to play and boost the orchestra, and they think it will probably help them sometime in life.

Every boy or girl while in school should learn some kind of music or to play a musical instrument which will help them more in society. Any one who will take up music in their spare time, or to play an instrument, would be very gladly received in the orchestra.

Those who play in the orchestra violins are Quenten Kirkpatrick, Dorothy Moore, Estelle Long, Mildred Whetchel, Paul Kirkpatrick, Edward Humes and Hollis Nance. Those who play saxophones are Robert Abney, Curtis Marks and Jack Ohler. Robert Johnson, trombone. Those play clarinets are Alice Ringer and Mable Hamble. Charles Ray, drums, and Mary Castetter, pianist.

Mr. Long—What causes malaria?
Anna H.—Too much night air.

NOTES OF ROOM 1.

Room 1 has an enrollment of twenty-three this year. Eleven of whom are beginners. Two new pupils from the "John Strange School" have entered. They are Kenneth and Jannett Buck.

Much interest has been shown in all lines of work and classes are progressing nicely. Much enthusiasm has been aroused over the lessons about "Our Garden." The need of green vegetables and their uses have been studied in the health class and a booklet illustrating it was made in the art class.

OREN EMERY ENTERTAINS FRIENDS AT WINNER ROAST

GIVEN AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. OTTO SUITOR—FINE TIME HAD BY ALL

Saturday, October 10, 1925.

A few weeks ago a winner roast was given by Mr. Oren Emery, a former resident of Fishers and his friend, Miss Foberta Dodd of Fishers, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sutor.

The purpose of this weiner roast was to get Mr. Joseph Emery and all his in-laws together. There were a few friends invited also.

When all had assembled at the home of Mr. Sutor music was played and everyone enjoyed some good jokes. Then they started to the woods, with lanterns, baskets and sacks, these were well filled with weiners, buns, marshmallows and apples.

Everybody after their short walk and by not eating any supper were very hungry, and started roasting weiners and marshmallows and eating apples.

But there was a sad part to this roasting of weiners and marshmallows, for you had to watch and when yours was done, keep guard on it you would find it missing. By glancing around you would see them going through the woods in the hands of Mona and Keith Emery.

The youngest one there was a seven month old baby boy, whose name is Harry Junior McDanniel. He watched the mad scramble and chimed in with "Da-da-da."

The oldest member was Joseph Emery who also enjoyed the evening.

After every one had all they wanted to eat they played games, not only the young folks, but every one who was able to play at all.

After the fire died down and every one was getting cold, they started back to the house. While there and before departing for home every one joined in singing some songs while Roberta Dodd played and also enjoyed some more good jokes.

They left family by family bidding farewell and telling what a fine time they had had, and hoped that another was not far off.

SOCIAL NEWS

Mr. and Mr. Floyd Graham and son, Joe, was Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ringer and children, Irene Reynolds and children were also afternoon guests.

Mr. James Breedlove, who has been in the Methodist hospital, is some what improved. Those called to see him Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Russel, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harper, Walter Ringer and Floyd Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Russell and family, and David Ringer, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Askren and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McConnell and family, and grandmother.

Miss Mabel Askren spent the weekend with Mrs. Kathryn Poole of Cumberland.

Miss Mildred Whelchel spent Tuesday night, October 13, with Miss Alice Ringer.

Miss Blossom Beaver and Mrs. Stanley Kinnich visited school October 13. Miss Opal Wiles visited school October 15.

Mrs. Paul Manship spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ross Beaver.

The young married peoples class of the Fishers Sunday School served dinner at Jordan's sale.

STAFF IS ELECTED FOR 1925-26 COMMUNICATOR

BURDEN OF EDITING THROWN ON SENIOR CLASS—CO-OPERATION OF SCHOOL EXPECTED

The class of 192 held its first class meeting and elected the following officers:

President—Jack Ohler.
Vice-President—Curtis Marks.
Secretary-Treasurer—Robert Abney.

Since the burden of putting out the school paper was handed over to the Senior Class the same meeting was used to elect members of the staff. The following duties were assigned:
Editor-in-Chief—Jack Ohler.
Assistant Editor—Quenten Kirkpatrick.

Circulation Manager—Chas. Ray.
Advertising Manager—Robert Abney.

Social Editor—Mabel Askren.
Jokes Editor—Addison Harrison.
Sporting Editor—Curtis Marks.

With the co-operation of the rest of the school and its friends we are expecting a paper of real merit.

Class of 1925.
Of course we haven't forgotten the members of last year's class. Maybe you'd like to know what they are doing.

Blossom Beaver is attending business college in Indianapolis. Wilma Buzendine is working for Mr. Collins. Dorsey Dodd is working his way through Valparaiso University. Edgar Frazier is working at the cement block factory. Mary Edith Hamble is married and living in Noblesville. Russel Howe is working on the William Dye farm. Minnie Johnson is working at home. Kenneth Kirkpatrick is working at home. Ethel Mantz is married and lives on a farm near Fishers. Dorothy Messersmith is married and lives in Texas. Maud McGinety is giving private lessons in music. Nina Nance is attending business college in Noblesville. DeLores Tate is married and lives in Fishers.

COURSE OF STUDY IS OUTLINED FOR 1925-26

The Seventh and Eighth grades have an enrollment of 23 pupils. The number is somewhat smaller than that of last year. They are rapidly becoming accustomed to class-room work and give promise of doing a successful year's work. The attendance has been good, there being only nine days absence during the first five weeks.

The freshmen who have entered high school in 1925 are: Ester Messersmith, Mary Castetter, Roger Brizendine, Marion Askren, Austin Flanders, Edward Hume, Hollis Nance, Paul Kirkpatrick, Marion Dodd, Della Norris, Willela Elmore, Emma Rike, Unus Whitmore and Clarence Castetter.

The Freshman are taking as the course of study: History, Algebra, English, the girls taking Domestic Science and the boys Indiana History.

The Sophomores are taking as courses of study: History, Algebra, English and Latin.

The Juniors are taking History, English, Latin and Geometry.

The Seniors are taking Geometry, English, Physiology and Civics.

Yell Leader Elected

An election of a yell leader for the coming basket ball season was called one morning last week by Mr. Rigot. Curtis Marks and Marion Askren received the nominations. Curtis received the majority of votes over Marion, so he will be our yell leader.

Previous to this time the spirit has always been strong enough but every body yells the first thing he happens to think of. This has very little effect on a team. We must co-operate and yell in unison under the direction of a yell leader. "United we stand, divided we fall," so let's everybody come out to the games and yell for the team.

TICKETS ARE PLACED ON SALE FOR LYCEUM COURSE

FIRST PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN NOV. 11—COURSE SCHEDULES FOUR NUMBERS

Tickets are now on sale for four number Lyceum Course for this year three numbers of which are to be furnished by the Brown Lyceum Bureau, which furnished the talent for last year's course. The fourth number will be given by the school, assisted by outside talent.

The first program of this course will be presented Wednesday, Nov. 11th, by Mr. Charles H. Craig, in a series of slight of hand deceptions, weird illusions, and startling feats of juggling, magic, and ventriloquism.

Mr. Craig comes recommended as a true "Master of Mystery." He has made a thorough study of every branch of his work. Whether performing feats of magic, exposing fake spiritualism, producing rag pictures, or amusing with his ventriloquist art, Mr. Craig's versatility, his breezy humor and his mastery of illusion, mark him as a brilliant and effective entertainer.

While Mr. Craig's programs are built for adult audiences, he finds perhaps his most ardent fans among the children. He uses many of these as his assistants, and includes many tricks especially for the children. One of these is a magic candy distribution which interests every child in the audience.

This entertainer will give a high-class program, sparkling with originality and variety and his entertainment will serve as a fitting opening for the season's program.

The second number of the course will be given by Mr. Burns, a noted lecturer; the third by the Musical Knox Duo, and the fourth by the school.

This lecture course for the winter was made possible by the action of about thirty-five citizens of the community and members of the school faculty, who agreed to back the enterprise. They are urging that, since this is a community enterprise, each citizen aid in insuring its success. This can be best done by the purchase of season tickets, which are on sale at one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children. If the programs are to be put on without loss nearly one hundred and fifty adult tickets must be sold and the committee asks that every one interested shall buy a season ticket and buy it early. They are on sale at the school house and the various business houses of the town. BUY YOUR TICKET AND BUY IT EARLY.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS ARE ALL NEW WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MR. LONG

H. S. ENROLLMENT FORTY—SENIORS ADD ONE MEMBER TO CLASS

Should Boost the School

SUPERINTENDENT QUEAR VISITS SCHOOL—NO SCHOOL 22-23 OF THIS MONTH

The High School year of 1925-26 started out this year with all new teachers, except Mr. Long, who has been here for the last two years.

Mrs. Espe Walton of Oaklandon, Ind., is the new English and Domestic Science teacher. She has taught here before but it has been several years ago.

Mr. V. L. Rigot of Rising Sun, Ind., took Mr. Quear's place as principal. He is teaching Civics and History.

The High School this year has forty students. The Seniors added a new member, Curtis Marks, to their class, which made it appear a little larger. But it seems that there is no such good luck as having any more girls in the class.

The Freshman have Unice Whitmore as a new member and the Sophomores have Mary Whitmore.

We hope that every teacher and student this year will help boost the H. S. and make it the best year for Fishers there has ever been.

Mr. Russel Fisher of Noblesville, is the new music supervisor. He succeeded Mr. Caylor, who has accepted a position in the Kokomo public schools.

Supt. Quear and Mr. Kelley, the Attendance Officer, visited our school recently.

No school October 22 and 23. Teachers are going to the State Association at Indianapolis.

ENTERTAINMENT WAS GIVEN AT SCHOOL BLDG. OCT. 2.

MISS GEORGE OF ATLANTA ENTERTAINED SUCCESSFULLY—SPECIAL MUSIC

Miss George of Atlanta gave a very successful program at Fishers school house, October 2, about seventy-five people were present. Special music was furnished by the musicians, Mary Castetter and Quenten Kirkpatrick.

Miss George gave many readings which were very interesting. The pupils she brought with her were much applauded. Many characteristic readings were given.

S S. Party

The True Blue Class of the Fishers' M. E. Sunday School met at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Quear at Noblesville, on Thursday evening, October 17th.

After the usual business many interesting contests were given which every one enjoyed. Miss Martha Quear favored the guests with a Hallow'en reading. Delicious refreshments of cheese, doughnuts, pumpkin pie, and cider were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Quear and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carrier, Rev. and Mrs. Borders and daughter, Mrs. Irene Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Humbles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chamberlain and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Rigot, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Manship and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Beaver and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rose and son, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harold, Mr. Quear and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kinney, and Mrs. John Crossley.

Five Suggestions on Questions for the teachers on exams:

1. Why should a man condemned to be shot at sunrise, pray for rain?
2. Is the large demand for scratch-paper occasioned by the seven year itch?

3. If it's the woman who pays, why is it the man is always broke?
4. Do the sunbeams giving way account for the night falling?
5. Why is it that though women are bargain hunters, they have no use for a man in reduced circumstances?

"Mother"

By R. L. Cooper
(The Hoosier Schoolmaster)

Mother; what a glorious word, Sweetest sound of human voice; When those tender chords are stirred Grandest music ever heard, Makes the heart rejoice.

Mother; Means the most to all. Guiding star of girl and boy. Helps to raise the one who falls. When her angel spirit calls. Fills the heart with joy.

Mother; memories of bliss, Just to think of all the years Of sacrifice; and how we miss The one who gave that holy kiss, That dried our wanton tears.

Mother; years cannot erase, Tender memories of her. Just across that little space, Soon we'll see that lovely face And be with her forever.

A SOLILOQUY.

I am not beautiful, and yet I possess some strangely subtle charm which lures them on—poor fools! How many have I lured and crushed, I know not. They might see from the fate of others what their fate shall be—but they must be shown.

Ah, see. One draws near. He stands there, gaping with curiosity. Now he comes closer, incensed with a desire to sip the honey from my lips. I will entice him! With a rush he seizes me in a lingering, fatal embrace. Now he lifts his head. The spell is broken. He tries to draw away, but he cannot. Now he struggles and curses me, but I laugh in his face. He strikes at me, but I seize his hand. In terror, he turns to flee, but it is too late—he is mine. And so, growing weaker, he sinks closer, closer until he fairly presses me, for it is so easy just to lie there. And I, Enchantress, seek another victim. Who am I? A piece of fly paper.

LINES TO A PENCIL.

I know not where thou art. I only know That thou wert on my desk, Peaceful and contented, A moment back, And as I turned my head To light a pill, Some heartless wretch Went south with thee. I know not who he was, Nor shall I investigate. Perchance It may have been The guy I stole thee from. —Kreolite News.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

Where can a man buy a cap for his knee, Or a key for the lock of his hair? Can his eyes be called an academy, Because there are pupils there? In the crown of you what jewels are found? Who travels the bridge of your nose? If you want to single the roof of your mouth Would you use the nails of your toes? Or beat the drum of your ear? Can the calf of your leg eat the corn on your toe? Then why now grow corn on the ear? Can the crook in your elbow be sent to jail? If so, what did it do. How can you sharpen your shoulder blade? I'll be doggone if I know, do you? Can you sit in the shade of the palm of your hand? —Exchange

MISS TIGHTFIST BECOMES BRIDE OF ARMOUR SWIFT GOLFER

Pretty Home Wedding Culminates Romance of Several Years.

Nine Holes, Dec. 1.—A beautiful home wedding was golfed last evening at the attractive suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Rockebilt Tightfist, when their popular and sweet daughter, Mashie, was given away in humble wedlock to Mr. Armour Swift Wilson Golfer. The bride entered the long drawing room on the arm of her distinguished father, and as they approached the altar, the groom was seen to enter from the south wing, leaning heavily on a new and shining mid-iron, Mr. Golfer was seriously injured in the Spring of 1918 in a drive on the sixteenth hole.

Miss Tightfist wore a new pair of pink and green checkered knickers, with suspenders attached behind, which were carried by little Miss Suzanne Paylittle. The skirt worn by the bride was made from a collection of all of her golf score cards. The pretty bride's bouquet was made of miniature golf sticks "topped" with small gold golf balls, making a very beautiful and appropriate bouquet for her to carry.

The alter was placed among the trees at the end of the drawing room, which had been cleverly transformed into a small golf course with artificial lakes (made of tears from the eyes of the parents), trees and greens. The ring, which made of platinum, had for its setting the number 85, signifying the highest score ever made by the bride on the Joe Perkins Course. During the impressive ceremony, which was conducted by the Rev. Brassy Niblick, the sweet strains of "Please Don't Hit Me Too Hard for I Am Just a Little Gold Ball" were heard floating over the links.

The first "hazard" of Mr. and Mrs. Golfer's married life was successfully crossed when they leaped over the last bunker arm in arm, and thus evaded the pursuing guests.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)
The Reverend Sawyer Spanker, of Litewaite, New Jersey, was to officiate at this aerial wedding of Miss May Pohl and Jack Haas. They were flying about two thousand feet above the earth and the Reverend was about to pronounce them man and wife, when Will Dropp, the aviator, suddenly decided to loop the loop. As the airplane described a graceful arc, the Reverend, who was not strapped to his seat abruptly left the ceremony and flitted into the air. Having foreseen his danger, he immediately released his portable parachute that was attached around his waist. The air soon caught the parachute and it descended very slowly. Just as he was ten feet from the earth over a concrete road, a car whizzed under and he found himself sitting in the back seat, upon the lap of a young lady, with her lover, was eloping from her enraged father by whom they were being pursued. Before the Reverend had time to present himself, the young man, C. U. Spidorr, handed him a Bible and fifty dollars and requested him to unite the couple in marriage. This the Reverend did, and thus did Violet Rae become the Mrs. Spidorr.

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By I. M. Dew.)
Rain—If you're planning a weiner roast.
Fair—If you're planning to study.
Humidity—Just enough to keep your cigars in condition.
Temperature—Mean, I'll say.
Precipitation—13 brackets, 5 tablespoons, 1 teaspoon.

EVERYBODY'S LONESOME.

Way down deep within their hearts
Everybody's lonesome;
Far within their secret parts
Everybody's lonesome;
Makes no difference how they smile,
What they love or what's their style,
Once in every little while,
Everybody's lonesome.

People first in big affairs—
Even they are lonesome;
Maybe like to put on airs,
Just the same they're lonesome.
Men for whom existence blends
Every good; who gain all ends,
Still reach out their hands for friends;
Everybody's lonesome.

Women, silk-clad, jeweled fine,
Yes; they too are lonesome;
When their gems the brightest shine
They are just as lonesome.
Some must serve and some command,

All still seek with grouping hand
Love and friends who understand;
Everybody's lonesome.

Though your gift of friendship's small,
Everybody's lonesome.
It may answer someone's call,
Some one who is lonesome;
Give, and give with might and main,
Give your hands, and join the chain,
And your gift will be your gain
Sometime when you're lonesome.

WHAT AM I?

I go, though I haven't a leg to my name and never was able to fly. I stop when I haven't been moved by a turn, though the seconds are hurrying by. I belong to the dries, yet water, my dears, whatever the swimmers may think, is fatal to me, so when you dive in, please leave me safe up on the brink. I can't hold a thing in my two little hands and never wear gloves at all. I am good for long years but I sometimes go dead if I happen to suffer a fall. If I shouldn't be going when you are, my friend, just take a long squint at the sun and measure your steps, and you'll never reach home in time for the chores to be done. I pay no attention to season or sign or such little trifling things.

but I'm free to confess that I and my kind have always been subject to Springs. I'm the friend of the doctor, the lawyer, the chief, the rich man, the poor man, the guy. If you don't now possess me, make Dad come across—you'll find me an excellent buy.

A little work, a little play,
To keep us going.
A little fun to match the sorrow
Of each day's growing.

Here's to bride and mother-in-law,
Here's to groom and father-in-law,
Here's to sister and brother-in-law,
Here's to friends and friends-in-law,
May none of them need an Attorney-at-law!

Eastern Star Social

The Order of Eastern Star will give a Hallowe'en Social at the Noah Manship hall, Thursday evening, October 29. A good program is being arranged for the entertainment feature of the social. Refreshments will be sold. A small admission fee will be charged for those who are not in costume. The public is invited.

S S. Party

The Willing Workers held their regular class social on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma Butz. Interesting letters from Miss Mary Thompson and the Missionary in India were read. This class is now studying the book of Leviticus and find that by giving the book a careful study much is learned that is passed over when first reading the chapters. After the study, contests were enjoyed by all. Delightful refreshments consisting of waldorf salad, hot rolls, coffee, and wafers were served. The class will meet in November with Mrs. Blanche Carrier.

Mrs. Mildred Van Vleet, violinist, of Indianapolis, will give a half-hour musical program preceding the sermon hour at the Fishers' M. E. Church, Sunday evening, November 1st. Mrs. Van Vleet is an accomplished musician and a good audience should be in attendance to hear her. She will be accompanied by Miss Maude McGinety at the piano.

Mr. Rigot—What's the height of your ambitions?
Howard F.—She's a little over four feet.

NOTES OF ROOM 2.

Those enrolled in Room 2 are:
Third Grade—Charles Askren, Mirvin Carrier, Pauline Crossley, Milo Dodd, Sophronia Elmore, Mary Erney, Kenneth Garrity, Max McGhehey, Stewart, Lloyd Wallace, James Whitesell, Lawrence Woolman.

Fourth Grade—Herman Askren, Josephine Beaver, Alma Ford, Wilbur Garrity, Cleo Madge, Mary Elizabeth Porter, Harlan Rike, Ruth Seymour, Esther Suiter, Gladys Sutton.

The attendance was very good the first month. There were five days absence because of sickness.

Great interest is taken by the pupils in this room, in the Dramatic Art lessons, presented by Miss Mildred George of Arcadia. This work will be of great benefit to the pupils in their Reading and Language work. It would be a very beneficial course for each pupil in this room.

FISHERS BAND

The Fishers band has been very successful through the summer giving concerts on Saturday night at Fishers, under the supervision of Prof. Harry Bowman.

The members of the band which were very ambitious for success, held rehearsal on every Monday night since the band originated. New members were taken in the band last fall, who were willing to shoulder the responsibility of playing an instrument and attend rehearsals. Some of the members wanted to take lessons, so Mr. Bowman arranged a class at Fishers, where he could give lessons and help each individual master their instrument with more skill.

The band was asked throughout the summer to play for ice cream socials and other occasions. The playing was successful and the band has had a very busy season, and a very profitable one. Throughout this winter the band is expected to improve their skill to the extent of giving a better and more successful number of concerts next summer.

Through the periods of concerts there were twenty-two soloists enrolled as members of the band. Monday night, October 5, new officers were elected, and they decided that new members should be enrolled to help the band. Clarinets, trombones and cornet soloists are needed. New members are totally welcome at any time.

For the good will of the merchants of Fishers, who helped the band while giving concerts, the members of the band are thankful. Also the people of the public who attended the concerts. We are hoping next year that the concerts will be more successful, and that more members will be enrolled in the next few weeks. The band as an organization appreciate the work of each member, and also those who have helped the band in the past.

New Restaurant is Now Ready For Business

The new restaurant was opened for business last Monday. It is situated in Lyle's building, which has been closed the past few months. It was opened by Mrs. Flanagan and Mrs. Kimberlin. They are expecting to sell meals of real home cooking. They also have soft drinks, candies and ice cream. In the last few days they have done exceedingly well, and expect to work up a trade in Fishers by the goods they sell. They expect to give service and furnish the public with what they want, and treat their customers with the best of courtesy.

EVERYBODY WANTS TO SEE OUR TEAM DO GOOD THIS YEAR, SO SUPPORT 'EM.

The Fishers High School Athletic Association will be run by Coach Kinnaman, who says with the material that he has this year is going to show the community that he can produce a good team out of the school. One of the best ideas he has is the sportsmanship that team to show their opponents.

They have had a few nights of practice, but the first squad has not yet been picked, but by the opening game they will have their positions.

The first game will be played on the home floor against Cicero, October 30. If this team is up to the standard to proceeding years, this will be a thrilling game.

By this game falling on Hallowe'en night, there will be a watchman for the cars while the occupants are attending the game.

Basketball schedules will be handed out at the first game for the year.

BASEBALL.

Fishers High School played the Lawrence High School, September 25, on the Fort Harrison diamond. By the lack of practice Fishers lost by a score of 8-2.

The return game was played on the Camp-Delight diamond. Fishers winning this game 4-2. This was the first game that Lawrence lost this year. Canon-Ball Flanders sure pitched a whale of a game, striking out twelve players, also knocking a home run.

BOOST THAT OLD TEAM—FISHERS.

"GOLDEN HOURS" CLASS HOLDS MONTHLY PARTY

The "Golden Hours" Class of Fishers Sunday School, held their monthly party at the home of Paul Kirkpatrick. Twenty-nine being present.

Several out-door games were played. Much fun was had, excepting a "few head-on collisions" and some "grandstand slides." After the grand march and the class "yells" they proceeded to the house. Here they were introduced into many dark and mysterious games. While shrieks of laughter rang from the mystery room, cold chills raced up and down the spines of those outside, but finally all were initiated.

After refreshments the class adjourned. Every one voting the evening a great success.

If The Telephone Had Been In Use In Olden Days

Solomon's line would have been continually busy.

Shakespeare would have reversed charges on Anne Hathaway while he was hanging around the globe in London.

Romeo and Juliet would have made a date before hand, and not got mixed up on that tomb business.

Mark Anthony would have had a mean long distance bill between Rome and Egypt, too.

Caesar's wife would not have been above suspicion.

Have you ever seen a sheet from the bed of a river?

A page from a volume of steam?

A wink from the eye of a needle?

A hair from the head of a hammer?

A feather from the wing of an army?

A bite from the teeth of a saw?

A check that is drawn on a sand bank?

Or a joint from the limb of the law?

No, but we have seen ten toes on the foot of a bed.

I HATE

The fellow who gets up at 5 a. m. jumps into a tub of ice water, steams and blows for half an hour and then jumps back into bed and says "Boy ain't it great?"

The fellow who studies all the time and then cribs off my paper in an examination.

The fellow who tries to make up with his girl only a week after christmas. (he should wait two.)

The guy who meets me on the street and hollers "what dye know, old man?"

The bird who is always telling about the good stuff he got before prohibition.

The rube who changes the phonograph needle every time he plays a record.

The guy who thought that Georgia was a girl.

The fellow who does not agree with me.

Whatever troubles Adam had,
No man in days of yore
Could say when Adam told a joke,
"I've heard that one before."

IMAGINE

Coach Kinnamon will have a fighting squad.

Ted Marks will be a shiek.

V. E. Trittipio will be a big oil magnet.

B. F. Castetter is prospering with the East Side Milk Co. at Fishers.

The Orchestra will be a success.

Mary Whitmore will be a chorus girl.

Mr. Long gets tired staying in the assembly.

Every one is glad to have Mrs. Walton back with F. H. S.

We will have a fire drill soon.

Mrs. Walton thought the assembly was a telegraph office Thursday evening.

Imagine Chas. Ray could handle a sword well, the way he uses the pointer in geometry class.
